Miss Brosnan Heads Hikers on Tramp Through Woods to Fort Totten.

STUDY FAMOUS SPOT

Wanderlusters Burrow Among Ruins of Part of Capital's Defense Built During Civil War Days.

five-mile tramp through the woods country north of Washington was enjoyed by 230 Wanderlusters yesterday enjoyed by 29 Wanderlusters yesterday.

The hike was begun early in the afternoon from Michigan avenue and Harewood road, near Catholic University, and ended in Takoma Park. The hike was ied by Miss Nellie Brosnan.

From Catholic University, the Wanderlusters struck for the Soldiers' Home, they walk. through the grounds of which they walk-ed, and from there they trudged to Fort Totten. The longest stop of the aft-ernoon was made at the old fort, from which a remarkable view of Washington s to be had. The hikers burrowed among the ruins of the fort, constructed for the defense of Washington during the civil war, for a considerable length of tramp from Fort Totten led to Terra Cotta and on to Takoma Park. Most of the walk was through woods, in which the naturalists of the party were greatly interested. The Wander-lusters reached Takoma Park in the ening and returned to Washington by treet car. Many strangers were numbered among he veteran Wanderlusters. It is supposed they became interested in the or-ganization because of the entertainment given by the members last week, at which several hundred people were pres-ent. The fact that 175 were out a week o and 230 tramped yesterday is taken those interested in the organization meaning the hikes are becoming more
